MarketTerminal®
Mobile Messenger

Access live financial information and email on the move

A great business combination

For truly efficient mobile working, KTS have combined MarketTerminal with a leading mobile handset from HP with T-Mobile's network for business mobility.

The HP iPAQ hw6915 Mobile Messenger has all the high-end features that enable you to manage your work whether it's running applications like MarketTerminal, accessing your emails or viewing files. Through its integrated wireless technology you can connect seamlessly to T-Mobile's global network and keep in touch on the go. Our winning combination is backed by a generous voice allowance and unlimited data allowance*, so that you can work the way you want.

KTS MarketTerminal with the HP iPAQ hw6915 Mobile Messenger and the T-Mobile network – built for business

Use the lightweight and compact HP iPAQ hw6915 Mobile Messenger, connected to the T-Mobile network, to organise your working day.

With the HP iPAQ hw6915 you can access MarketTerminal for live financial information, access your email and view attachments such as spreadsheets, graphic presentations and text documents using familiar Microsoft® applications.

Featuring the Windows Mobile® 5.0 operating system, this new mobile messaging solution supports push delivery of Microsoft® Office Outlook® information, including email, calendar, contacts and tasks direct to your Mobile Messenger device. Its high-definition 3" square screen displays your documents at their best, while the integrated keyboard makes it easier to compose emails, notes and instant messages.

Integrated Wi-Fi (WLAN 802.11b) provides high-speed Internet access in the office, at home and at your favourite hotspots. Through its built-in quad band wireless connectivity, you can connect to T-Mobile's high quality voice and data services even when you are abroad. T-Mobile's network is centred on business-friendly locations, with GSM/GPRS coverage of 99.4% of the UK population. T-Mobile have the world's largest GPRS foot-print – in 99 countries – so you can be sure of high speed voice and data connectivity wherever you travel.

The HP iPAQ hw6915 also comes complete with an all-in-one GPS navigation system, powered by TomTom, for easy route finding.
